

reflect • study • enrich • renew

Sabbaticals

Sabbaticals at Wesley House, Cambridge

Wesley House is a community of Methodist scholars and students at the heart of the university city of Cambridge. We are ideally located for visitors who wish to join us for formal or informal sabbaticals.

We can offer:

- ◆ Access to the libraries of the University of Cambridge, Wesley House and the Cambridge Theological Federation.
- ◆ Newly built and fully refurbished single and double ensuite rooms.
- ◆ Self-catering accommodation with free access to kitchen and laundry facilities.
- ◆ Opportunities in term time for worship, fellowship and meals with the resident community.

For more details visit www.wesley.cam.ac.uk/sabbatical or email office@wesley.cam.ac.uk

Wesley House: not just a theological college in Cambridge