What is Signs of God?

Signs of God is a voluntary organisation, promoting the use of British Sign Language in Christian settings. They offer quality training at affordable prices. Deaf and hearing people are all welcome to take part.

for more info on Signs of God see their website:
www.signsofgod.org.uk

What will the day be like?

There will be 4 groups offering workshops at different signing levels, (which is why we ask your experience of BSL when you book.) Following our theme, we will be looking at signing songs based on the Psalms, and developing story telling skills using some of the well known stories.

The day is open and accessible to people of all BSL skills (or none!)

(NB for professional interpreters:- this workshop is an informal event open to all. Whilst all participants will have some tuition in their skill sets, there will also be plenary sessions during the day. This is not certificated training, although you may choose to claim unstructured CPD hours at your own discretion.)

The day will be relaxed and fun.

There will be a lunch break - please bring your own or buy locally.

Tea/ coffee/ biscuits are included.
